

POR 352: Written and Sight Translation for English and Portuguese

This course focuses on the theory, process, and techniques of written and sight translation. Students engage in a variety of hands-on experiences with translation and editing. Materials may include government and other agency forms such as applications; reports; certificates; and school, social service, and medical documents. The course prepares students for practical, community-based translations. Students review the English and Portuguese skills necessary to produce clear and polished written and sight translations. Prerequisite: HUM 156. Three lecture hours per week.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

- 1. Apply professional standards for translations.
- 2. Practice norms and guidelines from state agencies and professional organizations.
- 3. Produce clear and polished written translation of all sorts of documents from the medical and legal fields (reports, documents from the Social Services; medical follow-up instructions; medical forms, etc.).
- 4. Engage in translation sub-skills, such as revising and editing.
- 5. Translate common mainstream/community documents (forms, birth certificates, questionnaires, etc.).

6. Identify regional variations of medical and legal terminology.
