

Global and Historic Awareness

Students will develop the ability to:

1. Explain connections between human behaviors and historical consequences.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the past to make connections between historical and current events.
3. Identify how values, belief systems, and institutions have evolved over time, and evaluate their significance and relationship to each other.
4. Appraise the complexity of socioeconomic forces, divergent political views, cultural dynamics, and/or environmental pressures that contribute to the contemporary world condition.
5. Compare and contrast one's own cultural perspective and alternative global perspectives.
