

SPA 102: Elementary Spanish II

A continuation of training in the four basic skills: reading, writing, speaking and aural comprehension. Cultural and daily living topics are included. Prerequisite: SPA 101 or two years of high school Spanish with an A or B average. Three lecture hours per week. Instructional Support Fee applies. Gen. Ed. Competencies Met: Human Expression.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Read, write and orally reproduce more complex grammatical structures, using the present, past and future tenses. 2. Initiate, minimally sustain, and close simple, basic communicative tasks, related to identification of family, daily life, housing, weather and sports. 3. Express physical and emotional states. 4. Read simple authentic texts and discuss their content. 5. Examine and translate audio and video clips. 6. Describe fundamental historic, social and political aspects of the Spanish speaking countries.

Credits: 3

Program: Spanish